Out of service due to extensive leaks caused by the 1994 earthquake. While repairs had kept this pool operating for several years immediately after the earthquake, the leaking was finally judged as beyond further repair. Work to design a new pool facility, which began in late 2002, is 75% complete, and led to a recent announcement of funding to demolish the old structure and construct a new family Aquatic Center and Bathhouse Building. Completion of design, then the bidding process and construction, will take about eighteen months, with opening by the 2006 summer season. Estimated cost: $6 million

This pool is in marginal condition. The pool tank has shifted twice due to seismic movement; the deck concrete is cracked and the pool piping leaks. The pool tank, deck, and the equipment in the filter room need to be replaced. The bathhouse needs refurbishment and upgrades to meet ADA requirements.

Newly renovated, ADA accessible, facility for 2004 is in better condition than when given the C grade in the Infrastructure Report. This was previously a seasonal pool, but after this summer season, the pool will operate on a year round basis. Two major pool-related projects were not included in the re-building of this pool, installation of a new sewer line from the street, and enclosing the filter room with a roof. This additional work could cost $645,000, according to BOE.

In 2002, Recreation and Parks Facility Repair Division replaced the entire pool deck, lifeguard towers, and handrails. The pool was sandblasted, resealed, and painted for a cost of $274,000. However, the pumps, filters, and piping still need replacement, and electrical upgrades are required, and the bathhouse needs refurbishment; the facility is not ADA compliant.
