Open call to Artist,

Annually, the City of Los Angeles-Department of Recreation and Parks celebrate Asian and Pacific Islander cultures at our Lotus Festival at Echo Park Lake. The 2008 Lotus Festival will be held on Saturday, July 12th and Sunday, July 13th. Since it's the 31st Celebration of the Lotus Festival this year, we are highlighting the culture of Japan and we are inviting you to participate by exhibiting your artwork at our gallery during the festival.

If you would like participate, you will have to submit your pieces in JPEG format and return the Artist Information Sheet (One (1) per piece, Maximum of five (5) pieces for submission) by June 2, 2008. The maximum size for two-dimensional artwork is 8' (H) X 4' (W) with a depth of 3 ½". Tapestries may be accepted with a maximum size of 15" (H) X 2 ½" (W). We will also be accepting a limited amount of three-dimensional artwork with a maximum size of 3' X 3' X 3'.

All pieces must be ready to hang or be able to be displayed on an easel; one of these two options will be left to the discretion of the Committee. If selected, the pieces will be shown at the Cathedral Center of St. Paul across from Echo Park Lake, which is air conditioned and will have security present to safeguard your pieces.
