Camp Seely is located in the San Bernardino Mountains, 65 miles from Los Angeles City Hall, nestled at an elevation of 4,200 feet near Lake Gregory and the town of Crestline off Highway 138, four miles east of the Lake Silverwood State Recreation Center.

We have been providing family outings since 1973. The family outings are open to people of all ages, single individuals, couples or families, and small groups of families or friends. Please limit your group to 20 people total (approximately 4 to 5 families)

The facility includes 64 cabins, a large kitchen, dining hall, rustic lodge, restrooms and shower facilities, a playing field, sand volleyball court, basketball court and children's play area.

Check-in and cabin assignments begin Saturday at 10:00 AM. Camp will conclude on Sunday after lunch. The program is designed for participants of all ages, activities that relate to nature, to the environment and encourage the meeting of new friends. It's your camping experience so we welcome you to do as much or as little as you want.

Camp Fees:

$65 per person (under 3 years old is free)

- Fees include the scheduled program and activities, one night's lodging in a single family heated cabin and 4 meals served in the rustic dining hall.
