

BRIAN WALSH

Originally from Middletown New Jersey, Brian came to Los Angeles in 2001 after obtaining a B.A. in Political Science from American University in Washington DC and a Master's degree in History from Monmouth University in West Long Branch, New Jersey. Brian is currently a Professor of History at Pierce College in Woodland Hills, where he has worked for twenty years. It was in the past six years that an advocacy for animals, particularly horses became more important in his life. After embracing a Vegan Lifestyle and the causes of animal welfare, Brian began to advocate for the end of horse racing and serves on the LAEAC with the interests of horses as his top priority.