

City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation & Parks
Recruitment Interest Form
Park Advisory Board Members

The Recreation and Parks Department is accepting applications for community volunteers to serve as members of the Park Advisory Board (PAB). The PAB advises and works in partnership with the Department in program development and park facility enhancement. The PAB members also assist with fundraising for special projects and the distribution of information to recreation center patrons, community groups, and non-users of services.

The Park Advisory Board holds a minimum of four meetings annually. PAB members may meet more frequently for committee work or special projects. Members are appointed for two-year terms. Interviews will be scheduled and appointments will be made as soon as possible.
